

To serve your Journalism and Communication Faculty . . .

Visual Communication Quarterly

a journal of research, theory, and practical criticism within all areas of visual communication

Visual Communication Quarterly is the official publication of the Visual Communication Division of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication.

VCQ publishes research, commentary, book reviews and an annotated bibliography of visual source materials to support university faculty who teach and research in the area of visual journalism and communication. Research articles are refereed by an outstanding panel of national jurors. The journal is in its eighth year of publication.

Recent research articles have included:

- Where Do You Draw the Line? A Study of Readers' Understanding of Truth in Digital Documentary Photographs
- Culture and Gender as Factors In Photojournalism Gatekeeping
- LIFE Goes to World War II: A Comparison of Photo Histories from Two U.S. Eras
- The Impact of Slow Motion Video on Viewer Evaluations of Television News Stories
- Sexualized Imagery as Power in Advertising Images: The Development of Self Efficacy in Young Women

We are making a special offer to university and departmental libraries. Ordered separately, each volume of Visual Communication Quarterly costs $30. A complete set of all five volumes costs $120, for a savings of $30. Prices include shipping and handling.

To order, please see the back of this flyer.

The volumes currently available are:

- Volume 3 (1996)
- Volume 4 (1997)
- Volume 5 (1998)
- Volume 6 (1999)
- Volume 7 (2000)

A second offering of bound volumes of VCQ will be available in the future.

- Volume 1 (1994)
- Volume 2 (1995)

For information: sales@nppa.org

THIS OFFER is being made by—

- The Visual Communication Division of the Association for Education and Mass Communication (AEJMC) and,
- The National Press Photographers Association (NPPA).

TO ORDER volumes of Visual Communication Quarterly for your university or departmental library, or for your personal collection, please follow these directions:

TO INDICATE your order of individual volumes or the set of three, please check the appropriate box for each selection.

- Volume 3 (1996) $30
- Volume 4 (1997) $30
- Volume 5 (1998) $30
- Volume 6 (1999) $30
- Volume 7 (2000) $30
- The set of five volumes (Vol.3, Vol. 4, Vol.5, Vol. 6, Vol. 7)—$120 (a $30 savings)

$_____ Please indicate the total cost of your order. Shipping and handling are included in the cost.

Address orders to:

The Photo Shop
National Press Photographers Assn.
3200 Croasdaile, Suite 306
Durham, NC 27705

Information for order:

Name _____

Mailing Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Phone: Area/Office number _____

Visual Communication Quarterly

a journal of research, theory, and practical criticism within all areas of visual communication

Please indicate method of payment:

Check
Payable to National Press Photographers Association (NPPA)

Credit Card

American Express

Card Number _____

Expires _____

Diners

Visa

Mastercard

Signature of Card Holder _____

Telephone charge-card orders to: (919) 383-7246, 9am to 5pm Eastern.

Purchase Order (P.O. option is for colleges and universities only.) Telephone P.O. number to: (919) 383-7246; or Fax to: (919) 383-7261.

Volume 3

- Questioning the Power of Color
by Sheree Josephson
- Playing Politics: Mythical Portraiture in Presidential Campaign Film
by Joanne Morreale
- On a Mission
by Dianne Hagaman
- An Exploration: The Construction of Claims in Visual Argumentation by Gail J. Chrysee, Sonja K. Foss and Arthur L. Ranney
- Blood, Body Bags and Tears
by Claudette Guzan Artwick
- Effects of Defamatory Headlines on Photographs by Mark E. Doremus
- The Influence of Statistical Graphics on Newspaper Reader Recall by Jeffrey L. Griffin and Robert L. Stevenson
- Front Pages of Non-Daily Newspapers by Ken Smith
- Why We Should Distrust Memories of TV News
by Tom Grimes

Volume 4

- From the Ridiculous to the Sublime: Stereotypes of Photojournalists in the Movies
by Earle Bridger

• A Picture's Worth 8,500,000 People: American News Pictures As Symbols of China
by David D. Perlmutter

• The Designers' Toolbox: Newsroom Experience and Ideal Characteristics of Newspaper Designers by Wayne Wanta and Lauren Danner

• How I Do a Design Critique
by Kristin Hertzog

• A TV Camera in Vietnam: Dave Hamer's Early Coverage of the War
by Michael D. Sherer

• The Data Forest: Tree Forms as Informational Graphics
by Leonard Rifas

• Seeing the Platypus: The Future Is Still and Motion by Dirk Halstead

• Do Newspaper Graphics Have Two Dimensions?
by Gerald Stone and Patti Hall

• The Sex Industry From A Woman's Point of View
by Ken Kobre

Volume 5

• Close-ups of the President: Photojournalistic Distance from 1945 to 1974
by Lawrence Mullen

• Describing Multimedia: The Use of Spatial Metaphors and Multimedia Design by Jean Trumbo

• Kent Kobersteen: The New Director of Photography at National Geographic Interview by Pete Souza

• The Faithful Documentor: Pretty Pictures and the Dilemma of Truth by George Bagley

• Visual Truth: The Role of Photojournalism in Mediating Reality
by Julianne H. Newton

• Cameras in Courtrooms: State Supreme Court Justices' Attitudes
by F. Dennis Hale

• The Social Landscape: A Photojournalism Professor's Project
by Gerald John Davey

Volume 6

• Sexualized Imagery as Power in Advertising: The Development of Self Efficacy in Young Women
by Cecelia Baldwin

• Afterthoughts on the Truth Strategy in Rothstein's Skull Photograph by Edgar Shaohua Huang

• The Role of Screen Size in Viewer Experiences of Media Content by Maria Elizabeth Grabe, Matthew Lombard, Robert D. Reich, Cheryl Campanella Bracken, and Theresa Bolmarich Ditton

• Routine News: The Power of the Organization in Visual Journalism by Wilson Lowrey

• Like a Shooting Star: Catherine Leroy in Vietnam
by C. Zoe Smith

• The Illustrated American: "A revelation of the heretofore untied possibilities of pictorial literature"
by Christopher R. Harris

Volume 7

• Marc Riboud in North Vietnam: Seeing the war from the other side by Claude H. Cookman

• LIFE Goes to World War II: A Comparison of Two Photo Histories from Two U.S. Eras by Patsy Watkins

• Culture and Gender as Factors in Photojournalism Gatekeeping
by Kimberly Bissell

• The Impact of Slow Motion Video on Viewer Evaluations of Television News Stories
by Brooke Barnett and Maria Elizabeth Grabe

• Fixing Stereotypes in News Photos: A Synergistic Approach with the Los Angeles Times
by Shelly Rodgers and Esther Thorson

• Where Do You Draw the Line? A Study of Readers' Understanding of Truth in Digital Documentary Photographs
by Edgar Shaghua Huang

• Imperial Imaginary: Photography and the Invention of the British Raj in India
by Shakuntala Rao